

- Career access/ vocational training
- Access to technology
- Quality OST programs
- Safe after school opportunities
- Alternatives to traditional education
- Opportunities for self-expression
- Preparation for higher education
- Creative outlets
- Increased media literacy
- Small classroom settings
- Access/teaching to diverse learning styles
- Socialization
- Positive youth-peer relationships
- Bring together alternative educators
- Access to media
- Empowering youth
- Civic engagement
- Community awareness

Meet the needs of youth

Youth are attending quality out-of-school-time multi-media programs.

- Youth will show increased civic engagement (local and global).
- Youth will demonstrate an increase in technology skills.
- Youth will work more collaboratively.
- Youth will develop appropriate socialization skills.
- Youth will exhibit an improved ability to deconstruct media.

- Increased civic engagement
- Increased vocational training
- Improved life skills
- Improved life skills
- Increased media literacy

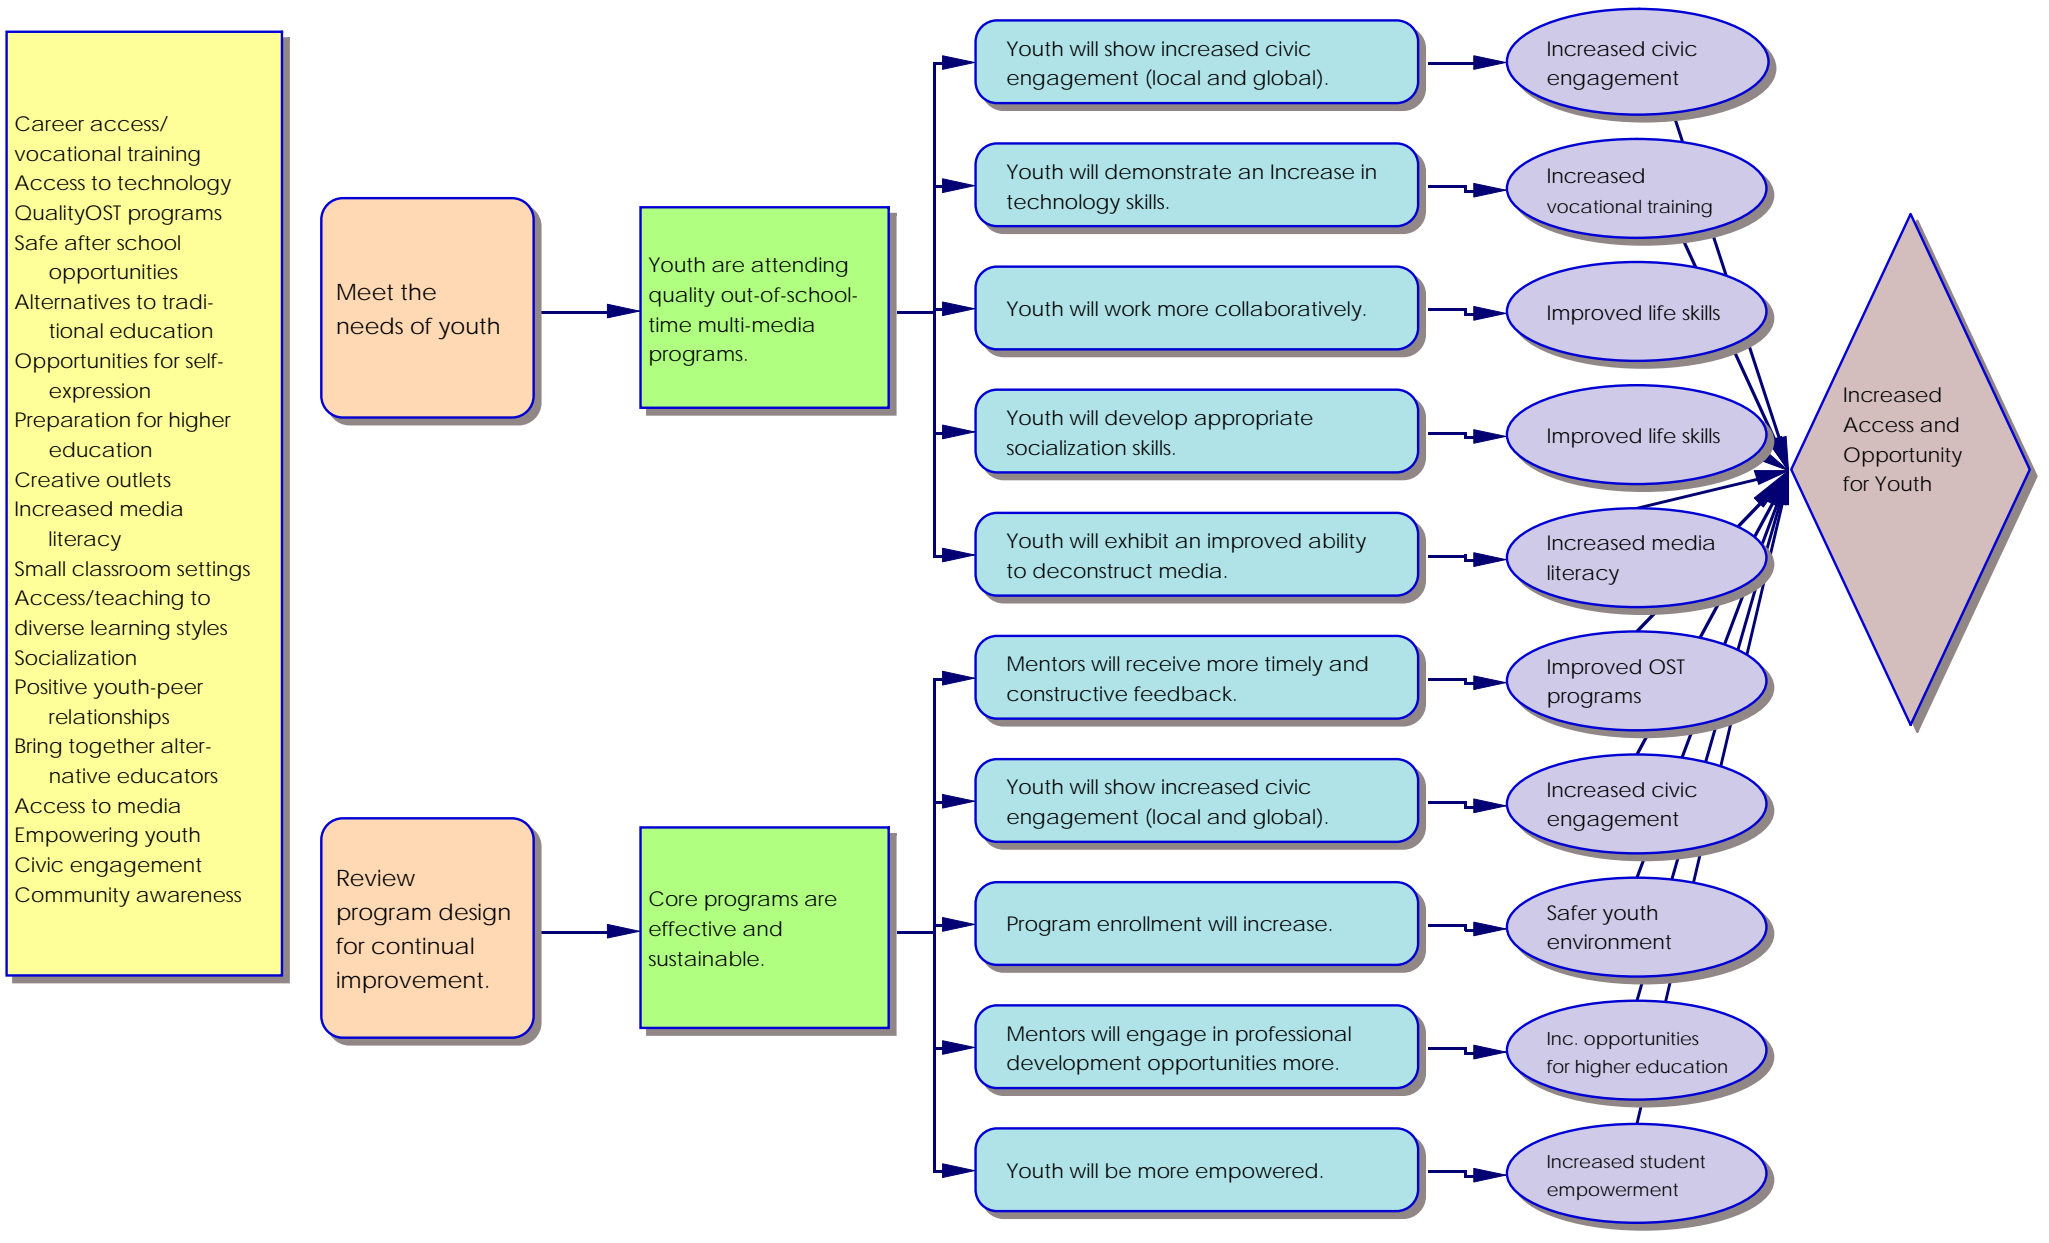

Review program design for continual improvement.

Core programs are effective and sustainable.

- Mentors will receive more timely and constructive feedback.
- Youth will show increased civic engagement (local and global).
- Program enrollment will increase.
- Mentors will engage in professional development opportunities more.
- Youth will be more empowered.

- Improved OST programs
- Increased civic engagement
- Safer youth environment
- Inc. opportunities for higher education
- Increased student empowerment

Increased Access and Opportunity for Youth

Career access/vocational training
Access to technology
Quality OST programs
Safe after school opportunities Alternatives to traditional education Opportunities for self-expression Preparation for higher education
Creative outlets
Increased media literacy
Small classroom settings Access/teaching to diverse learning styles
Socialization
Positive youth-peer relationships
Bring together alternative educators
Access to media
Empowering youth
Civic engagement
Community awareness

Engage students and staff.

Spy Hop programs and processes engage student and staff.

Youth will produce improved final products.

Increased access for youth

Youth attendance at Spy Hop programs will increase.

Inc. opportunities
for higher education

Spy Hop programs will reach a wider community audience.

Increased
diversity

Mentors will effectively teach students with different learning styles.

Access to alternative education

Youth will be more culturally sensitive.

Increased cultural sensitivity

Youth will have increased access to vocational opportunities and demonstrate preparedness.

Increased career access

Programs will reach increased numbers of target populations.

Increased
diversity

Youth will demonstrate increased critical thinking skills.

Improved life skills

Youth will exhibit increased creativity.

More creative outlets for youth

Meet the needs of the community.

Youth are instructed in 21st century skills and competencies.

Increased Access and Opportunity for Youth